

Council Elections quick guide

Purpose of the WorldCC Council: To act as ambassadors by supporting and promoting WorldCC's mission, vision, strategic goals and policy positions within your region or community.

Obligations of Council members

- Actively attend all WorldCC Council briefings and represent the membership of your community
- Keep informed of WorldCC's current programs, research activities, etc, and participate in programs and other events as you are able
- Help with WorldCC's efforts to increase membership by identifying and cultivating relationships with potential corporate and individual members
- Comply with the WorldCC Code of Conduct and Conflict of Interest Policy
- Maintain a fully paid Membership of WorldCC.

WorldCC's commitment to provide

- Career enhancing influence and status among your peers and communities
- Unique networking opportunities
- Regular private briefings to keep you informed of trends and research
- Route to the WorldCC Advisory Board and Governing Board influence
- 50% discount on conference attendance
- Exclusive invitation to the Conference Executive Track.

Council activities

Council members are to actively engage and facilitate one or more of the following activities:

- Attend, actively participate in and host Member Meetings and Conference session
- Lead and actively participate in WorldCC communities to develop a thriving body of CCM professionals across industries and topics
- External speaking opportunities representing WorldCC
- Suggest speakers for Ask The Expert Webinars
- Participate in surveys and generating research and study ideas
- Write articles for WorldCC publications such as Contracting Excellence Journal and JSCAN as well as external publications supporting WorldCC views
- Promote and/or participate in Learning and Development and the professionalisation of Contract and Commercial Management
- Identify key partnership and collaboration opportunities to enhance the overall WorldCC Mission for ensuring all trading relationships provide social and economic benefit.

Appointment policy

WorldCC Council is an appointed non-governing body consisting of two parts:

- Local contacts
- Community leads.

Members of the WorldCC Council will be listed on the WorldCC website, with appropriate contact information. General communication with individual Council members may occur at any time, whilst formal consultations (by conference call or webinar) typically occur quarterly.

To be eligible for a WorldCC Council role an individual must be a paid-up member of WorldCC and must always operate in compliance with the WorldCC Code of Conduct. The term of office is two years.

Regional and Country Community Leaders

We value the ability to consult with our local contacts, to validate our services and directions and to receive feedback on local trends and needs. Within the country, we ask that WorldCC Council members:

- Act as a local point of contact to assist with handling questions from local members or potential members. Many times people like to make initial queries in their native language
- Act as a point of referral for other questions or opportunities (e.g. from local media, from local conference companies, etc.)
- Assist with or convene periodic local member meetings
- Represent WorldCC at local events or meetings, as appropriate in a speaking / presenting role
- Promote membership in WorldCC and have general familiarity with our services.

Topical / Industry Council and Community Leads

We value the breadth of experts that are members from a wide variety of companies, industries and functions. From the diversity, some commonalities and communities have arisen. Our community leads provide input and guidance on the subject matter of their community, trends, directions and needs. We ask that WorldCC Council Community Leads:

- Act as the thought leader, subject matter expert and point of contact to assist with handling questions around the community's subject matter
- Act as a point of referral for other questions or opportunities (e.g. from local media, from local conference companies, etc.)
- Assist with or convene periodic virtual member meetings.
- Represent WorldCC at sector events or meetings, as appropriate in a speaking / presenting role
- Promote membership in WorldCC and have general familiarity with our services.

Instructions for nominations and voting

You can nominate yourself or someone else to be a member of the WorldCC Council. Nominations are carried out on SurveyMonkey:

www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/WorldCCCouncilNominations

Voting will begin on May 3rd using Election Buddy. Please watch your emails for more information and details to come. In the nomination survey, you will need to provide:

- Full name
- Email address
- Short bio
- Photo
- The reason you are nominating yourself or the other person.

2022 Council election timeline

General or media enquiries info@worldcc.com

www.worldcc.com

